Housing Outreach Worker – Youth Housing First

Description

e4c is committed to reducing poverty and empowering vulnerable populations in Edmonton through various programs and initiatives. As part of the Youth Housing First Team, you will play a crucial role in helping youth aged 16-24 secure sustainable housing and access the necessary financial benefits.

As a Housing Outreach Worker (HOW), you will assist persons served in securing housing, participating in case management, and accessing resources to aid in housing sustainability. Your role involves supporting youth in finding and securing appropriate housing, mentoring them to develop positive landlord relationships, and providing resources for housing start-up necessities.

Responsibilities

Important Work You Will Do at e4c:

- Housing Outreach:
 - Build relationships with Property Managers and Landlords.
 - Assist youth in finding and securing housing.
 - Mentor youth on landlord relationships.
 - Support using trauma-sensitive, harm-reduction methods.
- Case Management:
 - Develop trust-based relationships with youth.
 - Guide youth through housing transitions.
 - Develop goals and action plans.
 - Connect youth to community resources and services.

Qualifications

What You Bring to the Team:

- Education: Degree or Diploma in Child and Youth Care (CYC), Social Work, Human Services, or related field.
- Experience:
 - 1+ year with marginalized, high-risk, and vulnerable populations.
 - Experience with youth, social services, and Indigenous populations.
 - Knowledge of harm reduction, trauma, addictions, mental health, homelessness, and Indigenous culture.
 - Crisis de-escalation skills.
 - Proficiency in MS Office and database management.
- Skills: Strong relationship-building, assessment, referral, and case management skills.
